

Scale and Massing

The character of the local area has been a key consideration when reviewing the scale and massing of the proposed scheme.

It was important to us that the new buildings did not impose on their setting, particularly on the functioning parts of the Hospital.

Below you will see views and heights of the proposed buildings and how they respond to the prevailing built environment:

